

Declaration

1. I acknowledge that the IELTS test is jointly owned by British Council, IELTS Australia Pty Ltd (ABN 84 008 664 766), which is wholly owned by IDP Education Ltd ('IDP: IELTS Australia') and Cambridge Assessment English (part of the University of Cambridge), collectively referred to as the IELTS Test Partners.
2. I acknowledge that I have read the IELTS Information for Candidates booklet.
3. I acknowledge that I have read the 'IELTS Notice to Candidates' in this Application Form and agree to abide by the IELTS test terms and conditions.
4. I understand that there may be local terms and conditions that I must comply with and that the test centre will provide details of these on request.
5. I understand that if the details on this Application Form are not completed, my application may not be processed. I further understand that completing and submitting this form does not guarantee registration on my preferred test date or at my preferred test location. I understand that my registration will be confirmed in writing by the test centre.
6. I certify that the information in my application is complete, true and accurate.
7. I understand that my test result cannot be used for United Kingdom Visas and Immigration (UKVI) application purposes and that I will not be eligible for a refund if I subsequently find that I require an IELTS for UKVI test result.

Personal Information

I understand that:

8. It is necessary for my personal information to be collected and processed in order for me to take the IELTS test, to verify my identity and to receive my results. This personal information is collected and securely stored when I apply for and when I take the IELTS test and is used by the IELTS Test Partners for the purpose of the IELTS test.
9. My personal information, including, without limitation, test performance or score data and my test result may be disclosed by the IELTS Test Partners to Recognising Organisations to which I apply and to governments (including visa processing authorities) for the purpose of allowing these organisations to verify my test result.
10. My personal information may be processed in an anonymous form by the IELTS Test Partners for statistical and research purposes.
11. My photograph will be taken by the test centre on test day and will appear on my Test Report Form. This photograph will be provided to any Recognising Organisations or government authorities to which I apply, to allow these organisations to verify my test result.
12. I will be required to verify my identity on test day by providing the identity document specified by the test centre. I may also be requested to confirm my identity on test day by having a finger scan taken. The finger scan is taken as a Binary Large Object (BLOB), and no image of my fingerprint will be held. This biometric data will be held for 60 days after my test and will not be disclosed to any entity except the IELTS Test Partners.
13. My Speaking test will be recorded. In the event the test does not record I will be required to retake the Speaking test. An observer may attend my Speaking test as part of the examiner monitoring process.
14. I may be filmed for security and quality assurance purposes when registering for the test and during the test. The video footage will be held for a period of 60 days after my test and may be used for audit or investigation purposes. The footage may also be shared with government agencies for those purposes.
15. I can access further details on how the IELTS Test Partners use my personal information (including how long it is retained in different circumstances and how I can exercise my rights) at ielts.org/privacy.

Test Fees and Refunds

I understand that:

16. I will be charged the full test fee upon registration.
17. If I request a transfer or cancel my test, my right to a refund will be determined in accordance with local legislation.

Test Integrity, Security and Malpractice

I understand that:

18. I must attend all four test sections in order to receive a test result and any exception to this must be approved in advance by the test centre.
19. The IELTS Test Partners have a responsibility to all candidates and Recognising Organisations to ensure the highest confidence in IELTS test results.
The IELTS Test Partners may therefore be required to withhold test results temporarily or permanently, or to cancel test results which have been issued, if they consider those results to be unreliable for any reason.
20. My test result may not be issued 13 days (paper-based) or 3–5 days (computer-delivered) after the test if any of the IELTS Test Partners consider it necessary to review any matter associated with my test or the administration of my test, including making enquiries as to whether any rules or regulations have been breached. I may be required to provide additional samples of my writing and speaking for the purposes of assisting any investigation before or after the test. In exceptional circumstances, I may be required to retake one or more IELTS sections.
21. If I am suspected of engaging in any form of malpractice, if I refuse to comply with reasonable requests to inspect personal items, or if I do anything that might damage the integrity and security of IELTS, I may not receive a test result, my test fee will not be refunded and I may be banned from taking the IELTS test in the future. If I am banned, I will receive a notification stating the length of the ban. If I am subject to a ban and I register to take the test, I will not receive a test result and I will not be entitled to a refund. If a result is issued to me while I am subject to a ban, this result will be cancelled and I will not be entitled to a refund.
22. Details of any proven or suspected malpractice may be provided to Recognising Organisations, including governments (including visa processing authorities) and appropriate regulatory authorities, and centrally to the IELTS Test Partners. In instances where malpractice has been proven, I may be liable to prosecution.
23. The work I produce in the IELTS test remains the property of the IELTS Test Partners and will not be released to me. In cases of proven or suspected malpractice my work may be provided to relevant authorities.

Disclaimer: The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is designed to be one of many factors used by academic institutions, government agencies, professional bodies and employers in determining whether a test taker can be admitted as a student or be considered for employment or for citizenship purposes. IELTS is not designed to be the sole method of determining admission or employment for the test taker. IELTS is made available worldwide to all persons, regardless of age, gender, race, nationality or religion, but it is not recommended to persons under 16 years of age.

British Council, IDP: IELTS Australia and Cambridge Assessment English and any other party involved in creating, producing, or delivering IELTS shall not be liable for any direct, incidental, consequential, indirect, special, punitive, or similar damages arising out of access to, use of, acceptance by, or interpretation of the results by any third party, or any errors or omissions in the content thereof.

Notice to Candidates

You must...

- provide proof of your identity (passport or National Identity Card) at registration. Contact the test centre to confirm which type of identity document is accepted. Candidates taking the test outside their own country must use a passport.
- inform the centre of any changes to your identity document before the test date. If you do not do this you will not be allowed to take the test and you will not be eligible for a refund or transfer.
- bring the same identity document on the test day as the one recorded in your application. If you do not do this you will not be allowed to take the test and you will not be eligible for a refund or transfer.
- arrive at the centre before the scheduled test start time. If you arrive late, you will not be allowed to take the test and you will not be eligible for a refund or transfer.
- leave all personal belongings in the designated belongings area. The only items you may bring into the test room are your approved identity document, standard pen(s), pencil(s) and eraser(s), and a bottle of water (label-free). All electronic devices and all watches must be left in the belongings area and must be switched off. You may be electronically scanned for devices at any time during the test day. Any candidate who breaches these conditions will not receive an IELTS test result or be eligible for a refund or transfer. While the centre will take all reasonable measures to secure your items in the belongings area, they cannot be held responsible for any loss.
- consent for your identity to be verified both at test registration and on test day. This may include:
 - having your photograph taken. You will be required to temporarily remove any covering from your face. Any candidate who refuses to have a photograph taken will not be allowed to sit the test and will not be entitled to a refund. The photograph taken by the centre will appear on your Test Report Form.
 - providing a sample of your signature.
 - having your finger scan taken.
- keep only the following items on your desk: your identity document, pen(s), pencil(s), eraser(s), and a bottle of water (label-free).
- tell the invigilator at once if you think you have not been given the correct question paper or if the question paper is incomplete or illegible. For computer-delivered IELTS, tell the invigilator at once if you don't see the correct test on your computer screen or if the test is incomplete or illegible.
- raise your hand if you need to ask the invigilator something. Candidates may not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the test questions.
- attend all four sections of the test. If you do not attend all four sections, you will not receive an IELTS test result. Exceptions are possible but must be requested at registration and written approval must be received from the centre.
- inform the invigilator on the day of the test if you believe that your performance may be affected by ill health, by the way in which the test is delivered at the centre or for any other reason. If you have any issues, concerns or complaints relating to the delivery of the test you can submit a complaint. All complaints will be dealt with in line with our Complaints Policy available on ielts.org
- leave all test materials in the test room at the end of the test. The test materials include question papers, Speaking booklets, answer sheets and rough paper. Any candidate who attempts to remove test materials from the test room will not receive an IELTS test result.

You must not...

- talk to or disturb other candidates once the test has started.
- lend anything to, or borrow anything from, another candidate during the test.
- eat or smoke in the test room.
- leave the test room without the permission of the invigilator.
- leave your seat until all test materials have been collected and you have been told you can leave.
- engage in any form of malpractice which may damage the integrity and security of the IELTS test. Malpractice includes, but is not limited to:

- attempting to cheat in any way, including using notes of any kind from any source.
 - helping another candidate to cheat.
 - impersonating another candidate or having another candidate impersonate you.
 - copying the work of another candidate.
 - disrupting the test in any way.
 - reproducing any part of the test in any medium.
 - attempting to alter the data on the Test Report Form.
- Candidates engaging in malpractice will not be allowed to complete the test and will not receive an IELTS test result. Candidates engaging in malpractice may be banned from taking the test in future, and may be liable to legal action. Candidates engaging in malpractice may be reported to regulatory authorities globally.

Your IELTS test result

- Results are issued by centres, usually 13 days after the test for paper based IELTS or 3-5 days for computer delivered IELTS.
- You will receive only one copy of your Test Report Form. Replacement copies are not issued in the event of loss or damage.
- The Test Report Form will be issued in your name as it appears on the identity document used at registration. If you find that your personal details are incorrect on the Test Report Form, please contact the centre where you took the test. Documentation must be provided to verify the correct details. If you change your name after receiving your Test Report Form, the name will not be changed on the Test Report Form.
- Your result may not be issued 13 days (paper-based) or 3-5 days (computer delivered) after the test if the IELTS Test Partners decide that it is necessary to review any matter associated with your test or the administration of your test. To assist any investigation, you may be required to provide writing and speaking samples. In exceptional circumstances you may be required to re-take one or more IELTS sections.
- Your result may be cancelled after it has been issued if any irregularity is identified. You may be required to re-take one or more IELTS sections.
- Your result will be disclosed to the Recognising Organisations which you nominated in your application or to which you applied with your Test Report Form, for the purpose of allowing those organisations to verify the result or to carry out any enquiries in relation to suspected malpractice.
- If any of the data on the Test Report Form provided by you or your agent to Recognising Organisations has been altered in any way, your original test result may be cancelled.
- Candidates are not permitted access to the work they produce in the IELTS test.

Cancelling your IELTS test or requesting a transfer

- For information on cancelling your IELTS test or requesting a transfer, please go to ielts.org.

How IELTS uses your information

- The IELTS Test Partners recognise and support the right of IELTS test candidates to privacy.
- When you provide your identity information the IELTS Test Partners link that information to your IELTS test and test result on the Test Report Form. This enables you to submit your Test Report Form to Recognising Organisations and for them to verify your result.
- Test Report Forms will only be sent to those Recognising Organisations nominated by the candidate in their application or at the request of the candidate after the issue of results. When a candidate submits a Test Report Form to a Recognising Organisation they consent to the verification of the result by that organisation.
- The IELTS Test Partners or their authorised representatives may share candidate personal data including without limitation test performance or score data or photographs taken by the centre, with educational institutions, governments (including visa processing authorities), professional bodies and commercial organisations that recognise IELTS scores ('Recognising Organisations') or law enforcement agencies and regulatory authorities where required for verification purposes or other purposes to protect the IELTS test and its stakeholders against any form of malpractice. Finger-scan data, where obtained, will not be disclosed to any entity except the IELTS Test Partners.
- The IELTS Test Partners will retain work produced by candidates in the IELTS test and may use it for quality control purposes and for investigations into suspected malpractice. Test score data and test responses, in an anonymous form, may also be used for informational, research, statistical or training purposes.

Paper-based IELTS Terms & Conditions

Applicable to candidate appearing for paper based IELTS test

1. Test Partners: The IELTS test is jointly owned by the British Council, IELTS Australia Pty Ltd., which is wholly owned by IDP Education Ltd. ("IDP: IELTS Australia") and Cambridge Assessment English, collectively referred to as the "Test Partners".
2. Test Centre: This refers to the IELTS Test Centre "IDP Education India Private Ltd.", also referred as the "Centre".
3. Eligible Age: IELTS is made available worldwide to all persons, regardless of age, gender, race, nationality or religion but it is not recommended to persons under 16 years of age.

4. No Passport, No Test Policy: The candidate must bring his/her original valid passport, a copy of which was submitted with the application, to the Speaking test and Listening, Reading and Writing test. If the candidate does not bring his/her original passport on the test day, he/she will be refused entry to the test.
5. Arrangements for Special Needs Candidates: The Test Partners/ Centre will endeavour to accommodate any candidate with special needs (having visual difficulties, hearing or speaking difficulties, learning difficulties) as requested and as per the details provided in the application form. Such requests must be supported by medical evidence. However, in certain circumstances, it may require at least six (6) weeks' advance notice by the candidate for making special administrative arrangements. It is therefore recommended, that the candidate discusses about the requirements with the Centre, prior to submitting the application form. The Test Partners and the Centre will do their best to accommodate individual arrangements, but do not guarantee fulfillment of such requests at all times.
6. IELTS Application Form & Information: Only a fully completed paper based IELTS application form will be considered. Incomplete applications may be rejected. The details on the application form are collected for the purposes of the IELTS test and these details may be disclosed to, processed and stored by the Test Partners and the Centre for the purpose of administration. These details and the examination results may be disclosed by the Test Partners to those academic institutions or other entities to whom the candidate submits an enrolment application, for allowing such institutions or entities to verify the results of the test. If the Test Partners discover that a false or altered Test Report Form (TRF) has been provided to any of these institutions or entities, the Test Partners may inform the institutions or entities about it and provide them with the candidate's personal details. The personal details of the candidate may be processed in an anonymous form for statistical and research purposes by the Test Partners and / or the Centre.
7. Test Booking: The IELTS test application forms will be accepted by the Centre on a first-come-first-serve basis. Test seats are limited, and the registration will close for a particular test when all seats are booked or as decided by the Centre. The decision of the Centre will be final and binding on the candidate.
8. Test Type Selection: The responsibility of test type selection (i.e. Academic or General Training), lies with the candidate. However, it is recommended that if the candidate is unsure of which test module to take, then they shall refer to the organization to which they are applying. Changing the test type will be at the discretion of the Centre, subject to the receipt of an application in writing by the Centre from the candidate. A minimum of three (3) weeks' notice prior to the test date is required to be given to the Centre for changing the test type and the offer of a test place is dependent on availability and decision of the Centre.
9. Test Fee: The candidate understands that the test fee of INR 15,500 (Rupees fifteen thousand five hundred only) inclusive of all taxes is applicable for taking the test. The fee is subject to change, as per the decision of the Centre and will be final and binding on the candidate.
10. Payment: All payments for the test fee, transfers, Enquiry on Results, Additional Test Report Form must be made using the following payment options:

Payment Mode	Description
Demand Draft / Pay Order "the Demand Draft / Pay Order"	Order must be made from a nationalized/scheduled bank and drawn in favour of "IDP Education India Private Limited" payable at New Delhi.
Cash deposit slips	HDFC & ICICI

All payments at www.ieltsidpindia.com must be made through the payment options available on the website.

IMPORTANT: Please include your name, passport number, test-date and test-location on the reverse of the Demand Draft. Payment in cash will only be accepted at all branches of ICICI & HDFC branches. Cheque payment is not accepted. Do not pay cash to anyone. If the candidate pays cash to anyone, or pays by Demand Draft drawn in another name, he/she shall do so at his/her own risk and the Test Partners and/or the Centre will not be responsible for the same. If the payment from a candidate is not received in the account of IDP Education India Pvt. Ltd., the application for a test will be considered incomplete and will not be accepted; and where applicable, the TRF will be withheld until the payment is received by IDP Education India Pvt. Ltd.

11. Passport / Identification Document (ID): An original valid passport is currently treated as the only accepted proof of identification. A passport which is valid as on the date of application but expires before or on the day of the test will not be treated as an original valid passport and the candidate will not be permitted to sit the test. The application form must be accompanied by a clear photocopy of the passport (first and last page), without which the application will be treated incomplete, and the candidate will not be registered. If a candidate fills and submits the offline application form to the Centre or through its referral partners, without submitting a passport copy, the candidate will be required to submit a clear photocopy of the passport either at his/her Learning, Reading, and Writing test or Speaking test, whichever is earlier.
If a candidate submits an application form online, it is mandatory for the candidate to upload clear copy of the passport, failing which the candidate will be required to submit a clear photocopy of the passport either at his/her Listening, Reading, Writing test or the Speaking test whichever is earlier.
12. Applying online: If the candidate applies through the website www.ieltsidpindia.com then he/she must pay the test fee through the payment options available on the website.
13. Information provided by the Candidate: The candidate takes full responsibility for the correctness of the information provided in the application form. Any information found to be incorrect at any stage will automatically lead to cancellation of the test and the test result and fee paid for such test will be forfeited. The decision of the Centre will be final and binding on the candidate.
14. Allotment of Test Date: Listening, Reading, Writing test date will be allotted based on the choices provided by the candidate in his/her application form or as selected by the candidate while completing the online registration based on the availability. However, in case both dates are not available the candidate will be notified of the next available date, which if acceptable to the candidate will be allotted or the application will be returned to the candidate, if requested. The Centre may alter or cancel test dates at its sole discretion; in the absence of a minimum number of candidates on a test date or due to any logistic/operational issues. The decision of the Centre will be final and binding on the candidate.
15. Speaking Test: The Speaking test will be conducted as per a Speaking test schedule. The test may be conducted on the same day or anytime within seven (7) days prior to or after the Listening/Reading/Writing test date. The Centre will send the notification about the venue, date and the time of Speaking test no later than two (2) days from the scheduled Speaking test or Listening, Reading, Writing test, whichever is earlier.

16. Request for Transfer or Cancellation of Test Date: A request for a transfer or cancellation of a test date as per the terms under Test Date Transfer & Cancellation /Refund Application Form, in effect at the time of such request. The decision of the Centre will be final and binding on the candidate.
17. No Show / Absent on Test Day: In cases the candidate fails to appear on the test date, his/her application will be treated as cancelled, and the candidate will lose his/her full test fee and no refund will be given to the candidate unless authentic medical evidence is provided to the Centre. The decision of the Centre will be final and binding on the candidate.
18. Malpractice: The Centre will strictly deal with any malpractice(s) adopted by the candidate, including without limitation, impersonation, copying, collusion, disrupting the test in any manner, removing, copying or attempting to remove from the examination room any test material, submitting forged documents such as passport or resorting to any unlawful and wrongful means such as bribery or making payment for receiving any undue favours from anyone, committing or attempting to commit any act or omission that might in any manner damage the integrity and security of the IELTS Test as per guidelines of the Test Partners and/or violate the local laws of the land. The examination of such candidate will be cancelled, and the candidate will be disqualified. The candidate will also be liable to prosecution and may be prohibited from taking an IELTS test in the future, as per the decision of the Test Partners and law of the land, which will be binding on the candidate.
19. Reporting Malpractice / Fraud: The candidate also understands and agrees that he/she must not pay to anyone, any amount on account of the test except for the prescribed test fees. The candidate also understands and agrees that the candidate has not indulged in or has no intention whatsoever of indulging in any form of malpractice, which shall include without limitation, the incidents as mentioned hereinabove. The candidate also agrees that if found guilty of malpractice, the candidate's results will not be released, and his/her test shall stand cancelled. There will be no refund to the candidate. The candidate also understands and agrees that such matters may be reported to the government and law enforcing agencies and necessary action under the law may be initiated against the candidate found to be involved in any such acts. The candidate agrees to immediately inform the IELTS Ethics Officer via email at ielts.india@idp.com if the candidate is approached by anyone offering fraudulent services or similar offering in lieu of getting desired scores. All information will be dealt in the strictest confidence.
20. Complaints: If the candidate wants to make a complaint on the day of the test, he/she must do so before the candidate leaves the test venue. Once the test is finished, the candidate must go to the authorised IELTS staff and request for a complaint form to be completed before leaving the test venue and handed over to the IELTS staff.
21. Result Validity: The test results are valid for 2 years from the date of test.
22. Result Communication: The results would be communicated to the candidate within a stipulated time period, as fixed by the Test Partners subject to the terms and conditions of IELTS test.
The result of the candidate will be available 13 days after the test date. Test Report Forms will be available in electronic format only. The Centre may at its discretion make available the test scores on the website <https://www.ieltsidpindia.com> and/or communicate the same through SMS. However, the candidate understands and agrees, that scores communicated over the website or over SMS will be provisional / indicative and must not be treated as final scores or used for any formal, official or verification purposes. The eTRF as uploaded by the Centre under the candidate's login section at www.ieltsidpindia.com is and will be the correct, official and authentic IELTS test scores.
23. Enquiry on Results (EOR) / Remark: A candidate may apply for an Enquiry on Result (EOR) /Remark of his/her test results, using an Enquiry on Results Application Form. An application for such a request must be forwarded to the Centre within six (6) weeks of the test date on the e-TRF. Such request must be made by the candidate through his/her candidate login section at www.ieltsidpindia.com. The fee applicable for re-mark is INR 11,625 (Rupees eleven thousand six hundred and twenty five only) inclusive of all taxes. All payments, for the Enquiry on Results (EOR) must be made using the payment options as mentioned under the Payment clause hereinabove. There is no guarantee of the band score improving, as a result of re-marking. However, should the band score of the candidate increase, the re-marking fee paid by the candidate will be refunded in full. The decision of the Centre will be final and binding on the candidate and no further enquiries will be considered once the remarking process has been completed.
24. Request for issue of Additional Test Report Form 'ATRF':

Request for issue of ATRF: A candidate may request additional TRFs to be sent directly to recognizing organizations that may require these for various purposes. Such requests must be made by the candidate through his/her candidate login section at <https://www.ieltsidpindia.com>. All payments for ATRF must be made using the payment options as mentioned under the Payment clause hereinabove.

Electronic ATRF: There is no charge for issuing electronic ATRFs for the first five recognizing organisations, beyond which, every electronic ATRF request will attract an administrative charge of INR 250 (Rupees two hundred and fifty only), inclusive of taxes.

Registered Post: The candidate has to pay an administrative charge of INR 400 (Rupees four hundred only) per ATRF, inclusive of taxes, for dispatch of ATRF through registered post.

Courier Dispatch: The candidate has to pay an administrative charge of INR 1,500 (one thousand five hundred only) per ATRF, inclusive of taxes, for dispatch of ATRF through courier.

ATRF will not be sent to the candidate or to anybody, institution, organization other than those that are recognized by IELTS, as per the approved list of the Test Partners.

25. Receipt of Notice to IELTS Candidates: The candidate confirms that he/she has received the Notice to Candidates brochure, which is available with the application form. The terms of such notice will be deemed to have been understood and agreed to by the candidate.
26. Test Terms and Conditions: Once an application is submitted, it will be assumed that the candidate has read and understood all the terms and conditions herein. The terms and conditions can be modified and/or changed as deemed fit, by the Test Partners, without giving prior notice. Such modified terms and conditions, once communicated to the candidate, will be applicable and binding on the candidate.
27. Errors & Omissions: The Test Partners and the Centre, will take full care that the test procedures, administering of the test and declaring of results are handled as per the guidelines of the Test Partners and in the most professional manner and that, no errors or omissions are committed. However, in case any errors or omissions are reported/brought to the notice by the candidate, the same will be taken up and necessary action/remedial measures will be taken. The decision of the Centre in such cases will be final and binding on the candidate. No claims or compensations of any nature will be considered. The application must be supported by adequate and required supporting documents / evidence, without which the application will not be considered. The decision of the Centre will be final and binding on the candidate.

28. Request for Transfer of Test Date: A request using the Test Date Transfer & Cancellation/Refund Application Form for transferring of a test date (i.e., postponement or preponement) to another date must be made to the Centre at least fifteen (15) days prior to the original test date. The allocation of the next test date will be at the sole discretion of the Centre and subject to availability. An administrative fee of INR 3,875 (Rupees three thousand eight hundred and seventy five only) inclusive of all taxes will be applicable for transfer. All payments, for the transfers (i.e., postponement) must be made using the payment options as mentioned under the Payment clause hereinabove. No requests will be accepted after the cut-off period i.e., less than fifteen (15) days prior to the original test date.
29. Request for Cancellation: All applications for cancellation and refund must be sent to the Centre using the Transfer & Cancellation/Refund Application Form along with the original receipt of payment of the test fee. An administrative charge of INR 3,875 (Rupees three thousand eight hundred and seventy five only) inclusive of all taxes, will be applicable in such a case. If the application for cancellation is received fifteen (15) days prior to the test date, the balance of IELTS test fees of INR 11,625 (Rupees eleven thousand six hundred and twenty five only) inclusive of all taxes will be refunded to the applicant within ten (10) to twelve (12) working days from the date of application. Requests received, less than fifteen (15) days prior to the test date will not be accepted and no refund will be given to the candidate.
30. Request under "Extraordinary Circumstances" - Prior to the test date: A request received by the Centre less than fifteen (15) days prior to the test date, but before the commencement of the test will be treated as a Transfer, subject to the application fulfilling the conditions of Extraordinary Circumstances as listed hereunder.
